

Public lecture series
at Confucius Institute at Goethe University Frankfurt a.M.

Africa's Chinese options – Perceptions, Culture and Politics

Opening event

THURSDAY, 14 NOVEMBER 2013, 6 PM:

PUBLIC LECTURE:

CHINA'S CULTURAL DIPLOMACY IN AFRICA – RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

Prof. Pang Zhongying - Professor of International Relations and the founding Director, Centre for the Study of Global Governance at School of International Studies, Renmin University of China, Beijing. Guest professor at IZO and HSKF during winter semester 2013-14

AFRICAN-CHINESE CONCERT

Deng Xiaomei (Erhu), Kandara Diebaté (Kora) , Pape Samory Seck (percussionist)

CULINARY DELIGHTS

Admission: € 8 / € 10

Place: Aula, Hauptgebäude "Jügelhaus", 2nd floor,
Mertonstraße 17-21, 60325 Frankfurt am Main (Campus Bockenheim)

This lecture series is organized in cooperation with the AFRASO research project of ZIAF (Centre for Interdisciplinary African Studies) and IZO (Interdisciplinary Centre for East Asian Studies) at Goethe University Frankfurt a.M.

Public lectures

THURSDAY, 28 NOVEMBER 2013, 6 PM:

CCTV IN AFRICA – HOW CHINESE TELEVISION REPORTS ABOUT AFRICA

Dr. Cobus van Staden, lecturer in media studies, University of the Witwatersrand's School of Literature, Language and Media, University of Johannesburg

THURSDAY, 16 JANUARY 2014, 6 PM:

DISCUSSING CHINA IN TANZANIA'S PARLIAMENT

John Njenga Karugia – Postdoktorand AFRASO,
Centre for Interdisciplinary African Studies, Goethe University Frankfurt

THURSDAY, 13 FEBRUARY 2014, 6 PM:

CHINA'S AID & SOFT POWER IN AFRICA:
THE CASE OF EDUCATION & TRAINING

Prof. Kenneth King - Professor Emeritus,
African Studies School of Social and Political Science University of Edinburgh

Admission: € 3 / € 5

Place: Confucius Institute at Goethe University Frankfurt a.M.

Dantestr. 9, 60325 Frankfurt

This lecture series is organized in cooperation with the AFRASO research project of ZIAF (Centre for Interdisciplinary African Studies) and IZO (Interdisciplinary Centre for East Asian Studies) at Goethe University Frankfurt a.M.